

CLEARWATER NOXIOUS WEED CLINIC

March 20, 2019

Orofino Community Church
14233 Hwy 12
Orofino, Idaho

AGENDA—Orofino, ID

TIME	TOPIC	SPEAKER
8:30-8:55	Registration & Try to Identify Live Weeds on Display
8:55 – 9:00	Welcome, Introductions and Announcements Live weeds from across the CBCWMA will be potted and available for participants to try to identify (quiz) the weeds. Each weed will be explained at the end of the day prior to passing out herbicide recertification credits.	Denny Willams Clearwater County Weed Superintendent and Weed Clinic Facilitator
9:00 – 10:00	IPM and Strategic Pesticide Risk Management – New Developments	Ken Hart, Lewis County Extension
10:00 – 10:15	Break -- Check out the live potted weeds for identification
10:15 – 11:15	Intensive targeting grazing with cattle for the management of invasive/noxious weeds	Jim Church, Idaho County Extension
11:15 – 12:00	Investigating Pesticide Application Complaints—Case studies the findings and outcomes	Nick Kampf, ISDA
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch (on your own)	Your mouth munching on lunch
1:00 – 1:45	How to control common problems weeds in the Clearwater River Area	Jerry Ellis, Wilbur Ellis Co.
1:45 – 2:45	Annual Grass Weed Control -- What works Best and How to Implement on Your Lands-through IPM	Tim Prather, Dept. Plant Science, UI
2:45 – 3:00	Google Earth presentation -- a free tool that is powerful in weed control—and easy to use technology at your finger tips	NPSWCD
3:00 – 3:15	Break – Do you know all the potted weeds?
3:15 – 4:00	New Herbicide/surfactant chemistries for invasive/noxious Weed control—When, Where, When, How and Why	Jerry Ellis, Wilbur Ellis Co.
4:00 – 4:30	Open Session with Participants, Potted Weed Identification and door Prize Drawings. Pass out recertification credits.	Paul Brusven, NBPC

Clinic is hosted by the Clearwater Basin Cooperative Weed Management Area. Admission is free and pesticide license recertification credits will be available (morning session and afternoon session).

For information contact:
Lewis County Weed Control
(208) 937-2380

Door Prizes!!!

- Seed mix of brome, orchard grass, fescue, and white clover
- Noxious weed books
- Weeds of the West book